PRESS RELEASE

TOP INTERNATIONAL AWARD FOR CORNISH STREET THEATRE COMPANY

BASH STREET THEATRE WIN €3,000 (£2,000) AT PRESTIGIOUS SPANISH THEATRE FESTIVAL

The Penzance-based, Bash Street Theatre Company have won a top international award.

The company have just returned from the prestigious Tàrrega International Theatre Festival in Spain, where their silent-movie show "CLIFFHANGER!" won the "Best Street Theatre Show" award with a prize of €3,000.

"It's just fantastic news", said Bash Street co-director, JoJo Pickering.

"This was the culmination of a great season for us. We have performed in Belgium, France, Germany and Austria, and we were the only British company invited to Tàrrega.

"It's one of the biggest European Theatre Festivals, and our main objective was to showcase our work to get bookings in the future.

"The award is fantastic recognition for us on the international scene, and also for Cornwall and for British street theatre as a whole", she added.

Bash Street are due to finish their busy season with shows in Paris this weekend, and will be invited to Spain in the New Year to collect their award.
